What Is a Waldorf Kindergarten?

Here is the perfect companion to Sharifa Oppenheimer's Heaven on Earth: A Handbook for Parents of Young Children, which answers the initial and most pressing questions of new parents of young children. Inevitably, a big decision arises: How and where should my child be educated? The authors featured in What Is a Waldorf Kindergarten? describe from experience the numerous aspects of the "Steiner school" approach to early childhood education. Readers will learn what lies behind the Waldorf kindergarten methods and the practical ways in which it is applied by teachers in the classroom. Throughout the book, the reader is guided by the sure and compassionate hand of longtime kindergarten teacher

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

Lot's of typo's in the book, very strange. One letter in almost every paragraph would come out as a letter from a wrong alphabet.

Review 2:

Shariffa is truly amazing and offers so much valuable information. Loved every bit of it. I hope you enjoy it too.

Review 3:

I read some books about Waldorf before, but the talks about kindergarten in great detail. Explaining stages in child's life. I can see a lot similarities with my own boy, I wish he could go to local Waldorf school

Review 4:

Beautiful book, a great overview of the Waldorf early childhood education. Great for people who arent familiar with the philosophy

Review 5:

Found this book a very beautiful and an uncomplicated way to treat children in our care.
