What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

Interesting read

Review 2:

What an awesome book, and easy read. Herodotus states that the Egyptians taught the Greeks that learned everything from the Egyptians to include that the Egyptians were first to honor the Gods, and the Greeks copied the Egyptian Gods. In addition, he stated that the Egyptians were first in terms of creating divinity.

Review 3:

An easy to read translation

Review 4:

I have always been riveted by the section on Egypt and picked this up to refresh my recollections. It has always triggered my musings over the shared ancestry of Israel and Egypt, and the extent to which Jewish history, as given in the Bible, has possibly been lifted from that of Egypt. The fascinating book "Out of Egypt" takes this much further. It is a grisly read, to see that what is happening today in the Middle East should be so faithful to the barbarism of the past. Like all anthropology and archaeology, it is fascinating but is also a desperate reminder of the need for more, more, more education.

Review 5:

remarkable move in time back to ptolemaic egypt. found some fascinating facts such as egyptians practicing circumcision and abhorring pigs
